

WHERE WILL A LANGUAGE TAKE YOU?
Study Abroad Flight
Undergraduate Fellowship
Languages and Linguistics and Comparative Literature (LLCL)

A limited number (2 per year) study abroad fellowships of up to $1000 are available for deserving students who are declared LLCL majors or minors.

The fellowship will reimburse the expenses for the cost of an economy-class flight to an LLCL-sponsored or approved program, which includes a course taught in lingua.

The students will apply to the Scholarship Committee with a receipt of the flight, unofficial transcripts, and proof of acceptance into a study abroad program.

CRITERIA

- Merit-based (preferably no less than 3.0 GPA)
- Declared LLCL majors or minors
- Accepted in a LLCL-sponsored or approved program, which includes a course taught in lingua
- By submitting this application, you authorize the Office of Student Financial Aid to release information pertaining to your financial aid eligibility to the FAU Foundation for the purposes of determining scholarship eligibility.

MATERIAL

- Letter of request with student's qualifications
- Receipt of the flight
- Unofficial transcripts
- Proof of acceptance into a LLCL sponsored study abroad program

Send all material to Mike Hamilton mhamilton@fau.edu; and Ilaria Serra iserra1@fau.edu (LLCL Scholarship Committee) by the deadline announced each year
