Welcome back!

Socrates Now

January 18, 2024

SOCRATES NOW is an 80-minute solo performance-discourse, which captures the essence of Socratic ethics in an accessible and engaging manner. First presented by Elliniko Theatro in New York in 2004, it has since been performed to great acclaim at the United Nations, the Athens Agora, the NBC Today Show, on PBS's The Greeks and in countless theaters, festivals and cultural centers worldwide. FREE performance. Register at fauevents.com

The Georgina Dieter Dennis Voice Honor Recital

January 27, 2024

This recital will feature music majors in the area of choral and vocal studies to honor the legacy of mezzo-soprano, Georgina Dieter Dennis, and in appreciation for her generous continued contribution to the future of young singers, especially at Florida Atlantic University. Free to FAU Students. Register at fauevents.com

Rooted by Deborah Zoe Lauffer

February 3 - February 18, 2024

Emery and her sister Hazel, in their sixties, have never left their small upstate N.Y. town. Emery, content in her homemade treehouse named "Mabel," prefers a solitary life, blogging about her plant consciousness experiments. However, when Emery becomes an unforeseen internet sensation, attracting crowds who see her as a savior under Mabel, Hazel seizes the chance for profit and escape.
