

As it was

The show that never happened

EXHIBITION: APRIL 21 TO MAY 20, 2023,
AND FROM MAY 23 TO JULY 1, 2023, BY APPOINTMENT.

As It Was will include a juried selection of artworks from students who received their BA, BFA, or MFA between the Spring 2020 and Spring 2021 semesters, during which they were unable to have an in-person graduate exhibition due to the Covid-19 pandemic. The exhibition, curated by BFA graduates Natalie Luong and Paris Valladares, includes work from areas of printmaking, ceramics, photography, painting, and mixed media. For more information, visit <https://www.fau.edu/artsandletters/galleries/>. The galleries are free and open to the public.

A Summer Theatre Tradition FESTIVAL REP 2023

THE MUSICAL COMEDY MURDERS OF 1940

by John Bishop

June 10 - 25 | Marleen Forkas Studio One Theatre

The creative team behind a failed Broadway production gather for a backer's audition at the Westchester estate of a wealthy "angel" but a blizzard strands them there. As they prepare for the audition, murders start happening and chaos ensues as everyone tries to find the killer. A police inspector joins the fray, adding to the comedic tone of the story.
