

DEFINITION OF CONCURRENT ENROLLMENT

Concurrent enrollment is the process by which a student who is taking classes at BOTH FAU (FAU is referred to as the home school) AND another eligible institution (referred to as the host school) in the same semester may have their financial aid disbursement from FAU based on their total combined enrollment (FAU + Host Institution) for the semester.

DEFINITION OF CONSORTIUM STUDENT

A Consortium Student is a student who:

1. Has been admitted to a degree seeking program at FAU.
2. Has historically attended FAU as their primary institution of higher education.
3. Is scheduled to receive financial aid from FAU (home school).
4. For a particular term, wishes to receive their scheduled FAU financial aid award while enrolled exclusively at another institution (host school). Exclusively means, for that term, the student will be enrolled in ZERO CREDITS AT FAU (including co-op credits).

Below are the steps which must be followed to receive your financial aid as a transient student:

1. Read, initial, and sign the attached Transient Terms and Conditions Form. It is strongly advised that you make a copy of this document for your own records.
2. Return the Transient Terms and Conditions Form to the FAU Office of Student Financial Aid along with the following items:
 - a. Concurrent Enrollment: All documents must be printed and submitted AFTER drop/add date of Host Institution.
 - b. Consortium Student: All documents must be submitted BEFORE FAU term drop/add date.
 - An Approved Transient Student Form online through www.flvc.org (Please PRINT out Online Transient form)
 - A copy of your paid in full receipt from the Host Institution.
 - A copy of the class schedule.

TRANSIENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS TO RECEIVE FINANCIAL AID

Below are the Terms and Conditions to receive financial aid as a transient student. After reading each item, please INITIAL on the line to left to signify that you understand and comply with the criteria.

The only federal, state, or institutional aid program which will be disbursed to a transient student based on their EFC (Expected Family Contribution) and who are enrolled less than 6 credits is the Federal Pell Grant program. Federal Pell Grant recipients must be classified as Pell Grant eligible by the US Department of Education.

- _____ I am a degree seeking student at FAU.
- _____ I am registered for the approved courses appearing on the online Florida Virtual Campus Transient Form.
- _____ I understand that ALL FAU Institutional Grants and FAU Scholarships will ONLY disburse for FAU enrolled credits.
- _____ I understand that, to be eligible to receive financial aid as a transient student, I must be in good academic standing at FAU, and that I am ineligible to receive aid as a transient student if I am suspended for the term indicated above.
- _____ I understand that I may be required to repay certain financial aid programs should I drop or withdraw from any classes at the Host Institution. This especially applies to Bright Futures disbursement.
- _____ I am responsible for requesting that the host institution final transcript be sent to FAU after transient final grades are posted. If FAU does not receive the final grades in a timely manner, I will be considered non-attended and will be billed back.
- _____ I understand that ALL REPEATED COURSES taken at FAU and/or the host school, which EXCEED the limited eligibility of repeated course(s), will not be counted towards receiving Title IV Aid. If at the end of the transient term I have violated the limited eligibility of repeated course(s), I will be billed back.
- _____ I understand that FAU Institutional Scholarships and Florida Bright Futures will not pay for any remedial and/or not required courses taken.
- _____ I understand that if the Transient Terms and Condition Form is turned in AFTER the specified term, only Federal Pell Grant and/or Bright Futures funding may be increased based on transient enrolled hours and based on the availability of funds.
- _____ I have read and understand the Processing Instructions For Transient Students detailed on the previous page of this packet.
- _____ I am returning this form along with a PRINTED copy of my:
 - Approved Transient Student Form Class schedule from Host Institution A paid receipt from the Host Institution
 - If paid receipt has an amount under "Scheduled Paid by Financial Aid", please identify the source of payment _____
