

FAU Study Abroad Scholarship Application Information

The FAU study abroad scholarship was created to assist students with the funding of their study abroad program experience. Ten scholarships in the amount of $500 each are awarded for the summer 2010 semester abroad programs. Students may only receive the FAU Study Abroad Scholarship one time.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

In order to be eligible for the FAU study abroad scholarship, students must meet the following:

- Minimum overall GPA of 2.5
- Be a FAU degree-seeking student
- Submitted a completed FAU study abroad application to your study abroad advisor
- Summer programs must be 3 weeks or longer / semester programs must be 10 weeks or longer

APPLICATION PROCEDURE & CHECKLIST:

Your FAU study abroad scholarship application must include the following:

- Completed FAU study abroad scholarship application form.
- A one page, single-spaced (12 pt font) typed personal statement detailing how study abroad on the selected program supports your academic, professional, and personal goals.
- A one page, single-spaced (12 pt font) typed service requirement proposal (see below)
- Your name & study abroad program should be placed at the top right corner of your statement & proposal.
- One unofficial transcript from the most recent semester, if you have less than 12 FAU credit hours, please include official transcript(s) from previous institution(s).
- Provide THREE copies of your application, proposals, and transcript(s), with the original (4 total).
- Application and supporting documents must be submitted as one packet. Do not staple documents together.

SERVICE REQUIREMENT:

All award recipients are required to fulfill 10 service hours to the Office of International Programs within the fall or spring semester following the return from studying abroad. If you are studying abroad during your last semester at FAU, this requirement must be fulfilled prior to your departure abroad. In the past students have written guidebooks, marketed study abroad in the breezeway, created flyers, held info sessions, conducted class visits, and developed marketing schemes. The possibilities are endless and we encourage you to be creative! Each student should include a one page, single-spaced (12 pt font) typed service requirement proposal detailing what you would like to do to fulfill the 10 hours.

DEADLINE/SUBMISSION:

All scholarship applications and supporting documents must be submitted and received by 5:00 pm on the closing date to the Office of International Programs, 777 Glades Road, SU 106, Boca Raton, FL 33431. Faxed applications are not accepted and incomplete applications will not be considered.

- Friday, March 5, 2010 for Summer 2010 programs

SELECTION AND NOTIFICATION:

Scholarship applications are reviewed by a committee of FAU Administrators and Deans. The committee will evaluate the applications based on an analysis of the a) strength of the student's explanation of how studying abroad will support their academic, professional and personal goals, b) evidence of the fit between the study abroad program selected and the student's stated goals, c) strength of the student's communication and organizational skills as evidenced in the order and clarity of the written statement, and d) creativity and usefulness of the student's proposed service requirement proposal. Scholarship award notifications will be sent electronically, via your FAU email, within a few weeks after the application deadline.
