SUBJECT: Update to Catalog Course Description for ACG 6175 (Financial Statement Analysis).

The School of Accounting wishes to update the catalog description for ACG 6175 (Financial Statement Analysis). The proposed update is designed to bring the course description in line with current accounting practice and theory in the area of financial statement analysis.

Note that the only change in the description below is the deletion of the words “publically available” and the addition of the words “auditing” and “fraud detection”.

Required Catalog Changes

CURRENT:

Financial Statement Analysis (ACG 6175) 3 credits

Prerequisites: Admission to College of Business master's program and ACG 3141 or ACG 6137 and FIN 6406

The analysis of publicly available financial data for purposes of credit and investment decisions, including bankruptcy prediction models and earnings-based equity valuation.
