

SCHOLARSHIPS, FELLOWSHIPS & AWARDS

Student Scholarships, National Fellowship, Faculty/Staff/Alumni Awards

Each year, the members of Chapter 128 present:

- The Phi Kappa Phi Honors Convocation Award
One $2,500 award is presented to an outstanding FAU student. Nominations are submitted by the college of enrollment and selection is made by a University committee with representation from Phi Kappa Phi. Presentation of the award is made at the annual Spring Honors Convocation.
- The Phi Kappa Phi Scholars Award
Up to seven $1,000 awards are presented to outstanding FAU graduates who seek to enroll at FAU full time in masters or doctoral programs. Applications are included online. Selection is made by the Chapter Scholarship/Fellowship Committee. Presentation of the awards is made at the annual Spring Initiation Ceremony.
- The Phi Kappa Phi Freshman Honors Award
Five $100 awards are presented to first-year students who demonstrate academic excellence by participating in the Freshman Reading Program and submit a short reflective essay. Presentation of the awards is made at the annual Fall Freshman Convocation.

National Fellowship

The Chapter may nominate one student member for the annual national fellowship competition. These highly competitive awards provide up to $5,000 for first-year graduate or professional study. Minimum qualifications include completion of 90 semester-hours of course work and an overall grade point average of 3.8 or above. Information and application forms are available at the National Headquarters website. The FAU nominee is selected by the Chapter Scholarship/Fellowship Committee.

Faculty/Staff/Alumni Awards

The Chapter may nominate qualified faculty members for National Phi Kappa Phi awards and competitions, including:

- The “Phi Kappa Phi Artist Award”
- The “Phi Kappa Phi Scholar/Researcher Award”

In recognition of meritorious service, the members of Chapter 128 may present up to two awards annually to faculty/staff/alumni:
