

PLUS PRE LAW UNIVERSITY SERVICES

PLUS Student Learning Outcomes are based upon the Appreciative Advising Model

Through their interactions with FAU PLUS, students:

Develop relationships with attorney advisors and mentors. Develop relationships with other pre law Owls.	Disarm
Locate FAU and other resources for self-assessment regarding their law school interests. Connect to upper division (junior/senior) support within their FAU colleges. Locate FAU and other resources for exploring the legal field. Locate FAU and other resources for developing skills relevant to law education. Locate FAU resources for preparing for law school applications.	Discover
Perform self-assessment with the guidance of attorney advisors and mentors. Imagine educationally meaningful activities, events, and informational interviews.	Dream
Identify goals and activities related to self-assessment. Plan to engage in FAU activities and events that further their law school goals. Identify opportunities to develop career-related soft skills.	Design
Engage in educational activities including publishing, law school visits, and workshops. Co-plan educational activities for themselves and other pre law Owls.	Deliver
Meet regularly with attorney advisors and mentors, as well as with other pre law Owls. Develop leadership through involvement in FAU pre law partners.	Don't Settle
