Regulation 4.005 University Housing

(1) The opportunity to reside in University housing is a privilege, not a right. If there is evidence of abuse of this privilege, in cases where the housing resident violates Florida Atlantic University (FAU) or Florida Board of Governors rules, regulations, or policies, or housing guidelines or terms of an executed housing agreement, FAU reserves the right to take disciplinary action in the manner described under Regulation 4.007, Student Code of Conduct. Such disciplinary action may include, among other sanctions, a change of housing assignment, cancellation or modification of the housing agreement, eviction from University housing and/or refusal to enter into further housing agreements.

(2) Internal guidelines for housing are published and available to residents through the housing office. Each resident is required to execute an agreement for housing which may further contain conditions for residency.
