

CATALOG CHANGES FOR THE UNDERGRADUATE AGING CERTIFICATE TITLE CHANGE

CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

Several certificate programs are offered in the College for Design and Social Inquiry. The Phyllis and Harvey Sandler School of Social Work offers graduate as well as undergraduate certificates in Child Welfare, a graduate Aging certificate and an undergraduate Healthy Aging certificate. ~~and Aging.~~ Graduate certificate programs in the School of Urban and Regional Planning include Geographic Information Systems, Economic Development and Tourism, and Sustainable Community Planning. Please note: Economic Development and Tourism and Sustainable Community Planning are not accepting students at this time.

Healthy Aging Certificate/Link to graduate certificate

Undergraduate Social Work majors interested in working with elders may do so through the School of Social Work's Healthy Aging certificate. Completion of this program will provide students with a specific knowledge and skill base for a range of job opportunities with a diverse elder population. To apply for this program, contact the School of Social Work at 561-297-3234. Students may also refer to the certificate description online.

Program Requirements

A student may earn the Healthy Aging certificate upon completion of the following:

1. Be currently enrolled in the Bachelor of Social Work degree at FAU;
2. The 3-credit course Social Work with Aging Populations (SOW 4643);
3. Two additional, approved 3-credit courses in the Healthy Aging certificate program;
4. One B.S.W. field internship, approved by the School of Social Work, with specialized service outreach to diverse elders.