COURSE MATERIALS

- REQUIRED: The “Black Folder” is available at the University Bookstore and MUST be purchased for use in class and at concerts. This is the only acceptable performance folder.
<https://www.musicfolder.com/music-folders>
- REQUIRED: Choral uniform must be purchased through the choral department and paid for in full by the end of the second week of classes.
- Each individual will receive assigned music, which belongs to the Choral Studies area at FAU and must be returned in its entirety to the Department without markings (must be erased before submission), on or before the final exam period.
 - If the physical scores are not returned a hold will be placed in the student’s academic records through the Registrar’s Office.
 - If a student loses a score(s) he/she is responsible for the current replacement cost. If the student fails to follow-up with replacement payment a hold will on academic records through the Registrar’s Office will follow.
 - The same procedure as above will follow for damaged music.
- Occasionally students will be asked to print public domain scores or manuscripts from Blackboard. Once posted they are the student’s responsibility and must be brought to class in hard copy format.
- Each student is required to have A PENCIL at every rehearsal. One (1) point will be deducted for every time a student is identified for not having a pencil during rehearsal.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. This course requires an average of 7 hours per week including rehearsals and practice and/or memorization of music outside of the regularly scheduled rehearsals.
2. Students eligible to enroll in this course
 - Music majors who have passed a formal audition and has been approved by the chair of the area of choral and vocal studies
 - Student who are not music majors must audition for the choral faculty and ensemble assignment approved by the chair of the area of choral and vocal studies
3. A positive attitude throughout rehearsals and performances is expected.
4. The distributed / posted semester schedule is mandatory, including the required recorded submissions per this syllabus.
5. Any conflicts with the schedule must be brought to the director's attention during the FIRST WEEK of classes.
6. Five points will be deducted from the final grade for disruptions to class. This will include, but not be limited to, texting, cell phone rings, and talking.
7. ALL DRESS REHEARSALS ARE MANDATORY. ANY STUDENT WHO MISSES A DRESS REHEARSAL WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO PERFORM IN THE CONCERT RESULTING IN A MISSED PERFORMANCE. OFTEN REHEARSALS AND PERFORMANCES WILL TAKE PLACE ON FRIDAYS, SATURDAYS, AND/OR SUNDAYS. PLEASE BE MINDFUL THAT THERE WILL BE NO EXCUSED ABSENCES FOR THESE EVENTS.
8. During the course of the semester other choral activities might be scheduled and thus become mandatory. All extra opportunities will have no less than one-week notice. If a performance/rehearsal opportunity arises with less than one-week notice the group will decide by majority vote if it will become mandatory. However, if an extra rehearsal arises due to lack of progress, such rehearsal becomes mandatory when scheduled by the director. Any significant problems must be brought to the director's attention at the time of the announcement; otherwise it will not be excused.
9. Music folder with your assigned music is required at every rehearsal and performance. Students without music and pencil may be dismissed from rehearsal, thus receiving an absence for the day.
10. Each student must be prepared to sing alone or in other given formats at every rehearsal. Every student needs to anticipate that he/she may be called upon to sing without prior notice. At certain times pieces will require memorization. All pieces assigned to memory will be given a goal deadline. If a student is called upon to sing any of these pieces in rehearsal he/she must do so by memory.
11. Sectionals that are scheduled by the director are mandatory. All others are strongly recommended.
12. Relative progress should be evident at EVERY rehearsal. Singing tests (solo or in a small ensemble) will transpire, announced or as a pop quiz format, throughout the course of the semester. Every piece in the repertoire will have a "learned" deadline. Students will submit recorded portions online of given sections in every piece per the class schedule.

13. The ensemble’s concert attire is mandatory. The uniform should be neatly pressed and well maintained. If a dress is too tight or too short, the student may be asked to acquire one that meets the Ensemble’s standards.
14. Some piercings may need to be removed for rehearsals or performances. These include tongue, nose, other facial, and ear.
15. Music must be turned in at the end of the semester in good condition (no writing or water stains, etc). If it is not acceptable or missing (by assigned number) you will be charged the current replacement cost of each score.
16. Hair color that will be a distraction or break the uniformity of the ensemble will need be covered with a wig (i.e, green, purple, series of ... any color that is not the “normal pigmentation”)

GRADING:

- GRADING BEGINS WITH ATTENDANCE PER THE CHART BELOW
- Every student is responsible to learn EVERY assigned score. Once the score is introduced in rehearsal it is the responsibility of the individual chorister to secure the fundamental knowledge required of every singer. The ensemble rehearsal is NOT defined as scheduled time to spoon-feed the fundamental elements of music. The student is expected to come prepared to every rehearsal. The student is expected to submit recorded singing assignments online to demonstrate knowledge of scores.
 - Definition of being prepared for rehearsal means that the student has taken the responsibility to secure pitches, rhythms, diction, and vocal placement on their own after the score has been introduced at rehearsal.
 - Definition of rehearsal means that based on the individual chorister’s preparation, the conductor will be able to rehearse and unveil the artistic values of every score within any given concert program format with the goal of promoting the art of choral singing. Through the process of rehearsal choristers learn beyond the printed score; interpretation, performance practices, ensemble sound, conducting gestures appropriate to each score, text settings, etc., etc.

In the event that the ensemble is not presenting the acceptable progress towards successful performances, to assist students in the process of learning music in a timely manner, each student will have the opportunity to submit a singing recording of assigned pieces, or portions of such, through canvas. The student may be asked to resubmit if recording is unsatisfactory. Each piece/portion will be allowed a maximum of three submissions. For every submission that the student does not submit on the assigned date three points will be deducted from the final grade. Student will receive S or U for every required submission. This will affect the final grade only if; the student fails to submit or receives an unsatisfactory (U) grade for all three submissions.

- The objective of this type of assessment is to evaluate if the individual student has taken the responsibility to keep up with each assigned score; if so, it means that the student has been attentive during every rehearsal, has marked the score based on the progress of each rehearsal, has taken the responsibility to take any issues to the practice room to make sure that individual progress is maintained, etc. This course does not provide any student the opportunity to select his/her own pacing for score knowledge and progress. It is an ensemble and its performance will be as strong as its weakest member. This is a valuable lesson to learn for every student aspiring to be a musician in the area of vocal and choral performance.
- Basically, a student knows the music or does not know the music, therefore, technically the scoring should be S or U. However, the main objective is to guide the student through a positive learning experience that is well paced and not stressful.
- Concert Attire is expected to be neat and to follow the detailed guidelines in this syllabus. It is a graded component of this course.

THE STARTING VALUE OF THE GRADE WILL BEGIN WITH ATTENDANCE AS OUTLINED IN THE CHART BELOW.

Attendance Grading Criteria

Number of Absences	Maximum Start Value
0-	100
1 -2	90
3	80
4	70
5	65
6 +	50

- Any student who is not in place at time of call (regular rehearsals and special rehearsals) will have points from the FINAL grade deducted as follows

Minutes late	Points Deducted
1-5	2 points
5-10	5 points
10-+	10 points

- Note that more than 6 absences (or the correlating number of late arrival to rehearsals or special call times)) will make it impossible to pass this course as required for degree even with documentation. In addition, do not assume that all types of documentation will excuse any absences or late arrivals. It will be up to the discretion of the instructor.

From the highest attendance grade the following considerations will be calculated to arrive at the final grade for the semester.

Possible points deducted of recordings	0 – 9 per assignment
Concert Attire	5 per performance

SOME REHEARSALS AND EVENTS WILL COUNT DOUBLE. THEY INCLUDE:

- All extra rehearsals scheduled with at least one week’s notice.
- The mandatory Annual Choral Retreat (the first Saturday of Classes in the Fall semester).
- The LAST REHEARSAL BEFORE and the FIRST REHEARSAL AFTER a holiday, concert, or vacation
- The first and last rehearsals of the semester

As this is a teaching ensemble, events involving community relations and concerts are considered mandatory. Failure to participate in these events will affect the student’s final grade. Students will be given a one-week notice prior to the event

ATTENDANCE POLICY

1. Students are considered tardy at 1:00 pm on MTWR. At that start time the student should be prepared to sing rather than in the process of gathering materials. And/or entering the rehearsal room. Those not prepared to begin are considered late. Two points will be deducted.
2. An absence from a performance will constitute a grade of F for the semester.
3. See the above chart for punctuality for dress rehearsals and concert call times
4. Anyone missing the dress rehearsal will not be allowed to perform in that concert which will constitute a failing grade. Therefore, please carefully consider the schedule before the drop/add period ends.
5. There is no differentiation made between excused and unexcused absences; use of absences is left up to the students’ discretion. Documentation is REQUIRED for any absences to remove penalties. ALL DOCUMENTATION MUST BE SUBMITTED TO INSTRUCTOR WITHIN 2 weeks of return to classes to be considered.
6. Any student who misses more than 12 rehearsals (even with documentation) should consider a medical or regular withdrawal. Non-participation in 30% of the semester’s regular rehearsals will not be accepted for a passing grade.
7. Every Student is responsible for learning and memorizing every piece of music in the “folder”. Do not expect to be spoon-fed in rehearsal. Thus, tests may include pieces that have not been covered in rehearsal as much as other scores.
8. IF a student is unable to sing or participate for an extended time (more than 4 rehearsals in a semester) then the student needs to seek a medical documentation. Otherwise, a non-passing grade may be issued. It is not acceptable for a student to place himself/herself on vocal rest. A note from the respective applied voice instructor must be submitted to the director. Again, after the fourth rehearsal on vocal rest the student is required to submit medical documentation. Documentation must be submitted within two weeks after the fourth rehearsal “on vocal rest.” It is understood that at times medical appointment are not readily available. In this case, the student must demonstrate an official document that an appointment has been scheduled.
9. All students are required to attend ALL FAU choral concerts in which they do not perform. If a student performs in all concerts, this requirement will be waived. Failure to attend will result in a 10-point deduction from the final grade.
10. Students are responsible for arranging to make-up work missed because of legitimate class absence, such as serious illness, family emergencies, military obligation, court-imposed legal obligations or participation in University-approved activities.

11. Examples of University-approved reasons for absences include participating on an athletic or scholastic team, musical and theatrical performances, debate activities, and religious accommodations.
12. It is the student’s responsibility to give the instructor notice prior to any anticipated absence and within a reasonable amount of time after an unanticipated absence, ordinarily by the next scheduled class meeting. (or the day of in the case of an exam)
13. Instructors must allow each student who is absent for a University-approved reason the opportunity to make up work missed without any reduction in the student’s final course grade as a direct result of such absence. (University Catalog <http://www.fau.edu/academic/registrar/FAUcatalog/academics.php>)

CONCERT ATTIRE:

Students must purchase the required uniform. Price will be determined at the given semester according to current catalog prices. Uniforms must be paid for in full before it is ordered. Alterations needed are the responsibility of the student. The area of choral music has a seamstress who has agreed to follow the department’s guidelines. If a student chooses to go elsewhere and the guidelines are not followed, then the individual student is responsible for remedying the situation and may have to purchase a new uniform. If, in through course of time, a uniform does not fit or look as it should, the student will be responsible for replacing it before the next performance. Incomplete Policy: A grade of Incomplete will be assigned only in the case of extreme emergency or illness. This grade will only be assigned when such a situation precludes the students' ability to complete the Final Performance. If such a situation should occur, the student should contact the instructor prior to the start of the performance and should be in EXTREME cases only. Should this occur, the student will be required to complete the course the next time it is offered as no make up for a collaborative performance is possible or reasonable.

- Students are expected to refrain from the use of handheld Internet or texting devices during class. Should a student be found in violation of this etiquette, they will be asked to leave class and take the absence.

University Attendance Policy Statement: Students are expected to attend all of their scheduled University classes and to satisfy all academic objectives as outlined by the instructor. The effect of absences upon grades is determined by the instructor, and the University reserves the right to deal at any time with individual cases of non-attendance. Students are responsible for arranging to make up work missed because of legitimate class absence, such as illness, family emergencies, military obligation, court-imposed legal obligations or participation in University approved activities. Examples of University-approved reasons for absences include participating on an athletic or scholastic team, musical and theatrical performances and debate activities. It is the student's responsibility to give the instructor notice prior to any anticipated absences and within a reasonable amount of time after an unanticipated absence, ordinarily by the next scheduled class meeting. Instructors must allow each student who is absent for a University-approved reason the opportunity to make up work missed 3 without any reduction in the student's final course grade as a direct result of such absence.

SAS has offices across three of FAU’s campuses – Boca Raton, Davie and Jupiter – however disability services are available for students on all campuses. For more information, please visit the SAS website at www.fau.edu/sas/.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) Center Life as a university student can be challenging physically, mentally and emotionally. Students who find stress negatively affecting their ability to achieve academic or personal goals may wish to consider utilizing FAU’s Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) Center. For more information, go to <http://www.fau.edu/counseling/>

Code of Academic Integrity policy statement Students at Florida Atlantic University are expected to maintain the highest ethical standards. Academic dishonesty is considered a serious breach of these ethical standards, because it interferes with the university mission to provide a high quality education in which no student enjoys an unfair advantage over any other. Academic dishonesty is also destructive of the university community, which is grounded in a system of mutual trust and places high value on personal integrity and individual responsibility. Harsh penalties are associated with academic dishonesty. For more information, see University Regulation 4.001. WHAT SINGERS SHOULD DO

The Area of Choral and Vocal Studies wishes to thank The Singer's Resource, the Texas Voice Center, Houston, and the University of Michigan Vocal Health Center for the following information:

1. Maintain good general health. Get adequate rest to minimize fatigue. If you do become ill, avoid "talking over your laryngitis" - see your physician and rest your voice.

2. Exercise regularly.
3. Eat a balanced diet. Including vegetables, fruit and whole grains, and avoid caffeinated drinks (coffee, tea, and soft drinks) and alcohol. Avoid spicy, acidic, and dairy foods if you are sensitive to them.
4. Maintain body hydration; drink two quarts of water daily.
5. Avoid dry, artificial interior climates. Las Vegas has an average daily humidity of 36%, a relatively low amount of moisture. Using a humidifier at night might compensate for the dryness.
6. Limit the use of your voice. High-ceilinged restaurants, noisy parties, cars and planes are especially damaging to the voice. If necessary, use amplification for vocal projection.
7. Avoid throat clearing and voiced coughing.
8. Stop yelling, and avoid hard vocal attacks on initial vowel words.
9. Adjust the speaking pitch level of your voice. Use the pitch level in the same range where you say, "Umm-hmm?"
10. Speak in phrases rather than in paragraphs. Always speak on “fresh breath”
11. Reduce demands on your voice - don't do all the talking!
12. Learn to breathe silently to activate your breath support muscles and reduce neck tension.
13. Take full advantage of the two free elements of vocal fold healing: water and air.

14. Vocal athletes must treat their musculoskeletal system, as do other types of athletes; therefore, vocal warm-ups should always be used prior to singing. Vocal cool-downs are also essential to keep the singing voice healthy.

WHAT ALL MUSICIANS SHOULD DO

1. Stay informed. Awareness is the key. Like many health-related issues, prevention is much easier and less expensive than cures. Take time to read available information concerning injuries associated with your art.
2. Musicians might find the following books helpful:
 Conable, Barbara. What Every Musicians Needs to Know About the Body (GIA Publications, 2000)
 Klickstein, Gerald. The Musician's Way: A Guide to Practice, Performance, and Wellness (Oxford, 2009)
 Norris, Richard N. The Musician's Survival Manual (International Conference of Symphony and Opera Musicians, 1993)
3. The following links may be useful:

Performing Arts Medicine Association (PAMA), an organization comprised of dedicated medical professionals, artists educators, and administrators with the common goal of improving the health care of the performing artist.
Texas Voice Center, founded in 1989 for the diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of voice disorders.

National Center for Voice and Speech (NCVS), conducts research, educates vocologists, and disseminates information about voice and speech.
