RE: Addition of ECO 4223 Money and Financial Markets as an elective in Economics concentration (UHC)

As per the policies the University Honors Council established with regards to minor changes, such as the request from the Wilkes Honors College to add this course as an elective in their Economics concentration, the UHC does not have to vote to approve it, as long as they inform the Chair of the UHC—which their representatives did.

The UUPC may consider the addition of course ECO 4223 (Boca) as an elective for the UHC's Economics concentration and inclusion in the catalog. Thank you.
