

Bachelor of Arts with Major in Interdisciplinary Studies: Social Science
 (Minimum of 120 credits required)

In addition to the University and College requirements for admission and graduation, including the University foreign language graduation requirement, the requirements for the major in Interdisciplinary Studies: Social Science are as follows:

1. 39 credits; 30 must be upper division.
2. Students are required to choose, in consultation with an advisor, an area of concentration in which they earn 15-18, with a minimum of 12 upper-division credits. Students must seek advising and approval of a plan of study developed with the program advisor prior to or as they begin their program of study.
3. No more than 18 credits may be taken in any one discipline.
4. Must earn a "C" or better in all courses applied toward the major.
5. Courses in this degree may not count towards any other major or minor.
6. Students may be in asked in their last semester to submit a portfolio of work from the major for the purposes of program assessment.

Students must choose one of the following as their core area of concentration: Anthropology, Communication Studies, Ethnic Studies, History, Peace Studies, Political Science, Sociology and Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies. The Program Director may approve courses from any of these disciplines or programs as well as appropriate courses from other social science disciplines (Economics, Geography and Psychology) across the University and/or other disciplines or programs within the College of Arts and Letters.

Barclay Barrios 10/8/2014 11:42 AM
Deleted: f the student is seeking a double major, no more than 9 credits from the disciplinary major may be applied to the interdisciplinary major.

Approved by:	Date:
Department Chair: Bulky B	10/20/14
College Curriculum Chair: [Signature]
College Dean: Heather Tolma	11-4-14
UUPC Chair: J E [Signature]	11/10/14
Undergraduate Studies Dean: Ed [Signature]	11/12/14
UFS President: _____	_____
Provost: _____	_____